THE ARTSY BULLETIN

- We covered the beginnings of Caribbean Art, continuing with the Puerto Rican Artisan Crafts
 - and Papier-Mache.

Now, we will follow up with the Colonial Architecture, beginning with the Enchanted Island.

Students will be able to:

- Identify Architectural forms around them.
- Talk about Puerto Rican Architecture and name its most famous Landmarks.
- Identify: primary, secondary, tertiary, neutral and complementary colors.
- Create their own colors.
- Understand how watercolors work.
- Perceive and apply depth when creating an environment.

Students Will Be Keeping a sketchbook to record their experiences learning art.

Artsy Tip:

Encourage your children to use the sketchbook at home.
